

PRIVACY POLICY

Local 669 considers any data you submit to this website, as well as the data and the content of all of your messages in connection with this website to be private. Local 669 will not intentionally monitor or disclose any of your e-mail messages or data on this site unless:

- We are required to do so by subpoena, by law, or in order to defend against any legal action brought against us.

Additionally, you agree that you will not disclose any private or confidential information of others in connection with your use of this site. If you have a password for this site, your password is essential for protecting your privacy. We encourage you not to share it with anyone and to change it frequently.